

We create chemistry

January 16, 2018

To whom it may concern,

BASF Corporation has reviewed and evaluated AllEngelhard.com and recognizes the website for its comprehensive detail and chronological validation of Engelhard Industries' retail bullion production from the 1960's through late 1980's. We are impressed with the level of historical reconstruction that only intense dedication could create. BASF Corporation is pleased to endorse AllEngelhard.com and is committed to supporting their continued contributions.

Sincerely,

Corporate Communications
