

100!

Less than 4 months ago, we posted 50! 50! 50! and we were ecstatic that the market had finally reached its previous all-time historical highs. It seemed like it took literally FOREVER to get there. So now less than 120 days later, Silver Spot breaks 100 . . . O N E H U N D R E D D O L L A R S A N O U N C E !!!!

We didn't really have time to fully digest 50, or 60, or 70, or 80, or 90, and here's 100! And many analysts are saying this is a major structural repricing move that is long overdue, and the previously manipulated price is destined to free climb for a good while. Some say $150 by June, many say $200 by Summer, and many more are saying $300-$500/oz this year. For now, we're savoring $100/oz, and if it settled here for a while, we would not be disappointed! But it very well may be a distant number in the rearview mirror very shortly.

If you're like us, while $100/oz sounds terrific, it's so hard to put this in perspective with our stacks. At $100/oz, this is what we're looking at for just base metal value:

1 oz bar	$ 100.00
5 oz bar	$ 500.00
10 oz bar	$ 1,000.00
20 oz bar	$ 2,000.00
25 oz bar	$ 2,500.00
1 Kilo	$ 3,215.00
50 oz bar	$ 5,000.00
100 oz bar	$ 10,000.00
1000 oz bar	$ 100,000.00

If you were buying at $30/oz at this time last year, you have got to be pretty happy right now. Even if you bought at $50/oz four months ago you've scored big. Collectors and investors jumping in today may very well see a 2X to 5X return in the coming year(s) if things play out like folks are talking. And the exciting thing for us is that collector premiums seem to be returning in a big way to vintage bars. As the investor and collector markets continue to expand, the thought of paying a marginal premium for something with added numismatic value is a pretty safe bet in our opinion.

With the market moving so fast, this post will no doubt be old news in no time. People will be talking about the good ol' days when they loaded up on Silver when it was only $100/oz! For anyone who has doubted silver over the years, it really is turning out to be everything it's stacked up to be.

Engelheartedly,
AE
